Sledge Named PERS Human Resources Director

Jennifer Sledge of Brandon has been named Human Resources director for the Public Employees' Retirement System of Mississippi (PERS).

A graduate of Mississippi State University with a master's in public policy and administration, Sledge came to PERS in June 2010 as training coordinator after working six years with the Mississippi State Personnel Board, where she was director of the Certified Public Manager program, special projects coordinator over the office of workforce development, and a classification/compensation analyst. Sledge earned her undergraduate degree in business from Old Dominion University in Norfolk, VA, and also has worked as a corporate recruiter for Orion International and served four and a half years active duty with the U.S. Navy.
