Cecil Hill joins the PERS Board of Trustees

With the new year comes a new face to the PERS Board of Trustees, as Dr. Cecil L. Hill, associate professor of accounting at Jackson State University, has been elected as the new institutions of higher learning representative.

At its Dec. 21 meeting, the Board certified the results of the runoff election between Dr. Hill, of Jackson, and David G. Putt, of Canton, chief executive officer of University Hospitals and Health System at the University of Mississippi Medical Center.

Dr. Hill is filling a position left vacant at the term completion of Dr. Joseph S. Paul, vice president of student affairs at the University of Southern Mississippi. Dr. Hill's six-year term began January 1.
