PERS website best source for up-to-date forms

Employers are reminded that the online PERS Forms Library is the best source for the most up-to-date forms.

We are revising our forms to make them more customer friendly and align them with statutory and regulatory changes. Visitors to our forms library may see which forms have been updated by the revised date listed next to each form.

Employers are encouraged to visit our library whenever a form is needed.

Thank you.
